Many homes make large claims about what they offer that don't actually check out when seen, which for most home buyers is nothing short of frustrating! On the other hand there is this gorgeous example which happily backs up all its claims to be and more. Comprising three fitted bedrooms, master with ensuite, this gorgeous home offers a large open plan format that takes into account a generous central kitchen fitted with quality stainless steel appliances including dishwasher, adjoining meals and large family and rumpus zones. With a quality fit out, this home has also been finished with ducted heating and a large split system air conditioner. Outdoors is an entertainer's paradise with the low maintenance confines, you will find a huge decked pergola that spans the width of the home, surrounded by manicured gardens, while there is also a double garage with internal and automated access. This is simple JUST MOVE IN EXERCISE
