

29 Inala Street RYE VIC

2 1

Privately set on a quiet street, this much loved home evokes a calming holiday feel all year long. Built to take advantage of the treetop vistas, this two bedroom property would make the ideal home for those seeking a tranquil holiday retreat or for somewhere to add value and capitalise on its' elevation. Largely original, this heart-warming home boasts a large, fully functional kitchen overlooking the spacious dining and living space, complete with a cosy wood fire. From here, a sliding door allows seamless access to the broad deck which showcases the greenery beyond. The undercover alfresco area, complete with its' own pizza oven, is the perfect entertaining zone. Further highlights include low maintenance grounds, parking space for multiple vehicles, as well as under-house storage. Potential packed, yet perfect as is, make this your treetop hideaway.
