A charming, coastal, brick chalet situated amongst the beautiful surrounds of the Mornington Peninsula, this heavenly home will welcome you in and invite you to stay. The recently updated interiors of this cute as a button residence will delight even the fussiest buyer, offering a calm space to unwind or a warm sanctuary on those cold winters nights. Walls of pale grey, exposed white washed brick and timber panelling are complemented by beautiful floors of natural oak coloured elegance which flow throughout the home. Three generous bedrooms, main family bathroom and separate living and dining area along with a gorgeous kitchen updated with shaker style cabinets and shiny new stainless steel appliances, the floor plan is designed for family living and flows seamlessly out onto your very own private courtyard, visually and aesthetically echoing more of a 'wine garden' than a back garden. Located within close proximity to the Hidden Kitchen and
