Completed in 1642, the original 'SHALIMAR' gardens were laid out as a Persian paradise intended to create a representation of an earthly utopia. Fast forward to 2021, and the beautiful grounds and grand proportions of this exquisite four bedroom home located on the southern tip of the Mornington Peninsula, echos the same euphoric sensation that was created across the seas almost 400 years ago.

Flanked by two majestic palm trees and surrounded by nature, this impeccably presented commanding property, occupying a prime corner position in the private and coveted enclave of Settlers Cove, offers an exceptional lifestyle in an unbeatable location. Positioned only a short stroll to the breathtaking scenery and rugged coastline of Diamond bay as well as being just moments to the Sorrento Sailing Couta Boat Club, foreshore, Sorrento Village, Cameron's Bight Jetty, and Koonya Dog Beach -
