

57 Canterbury Jetty Road Rye VIC

2 1 1

If you like your beach houses replete with charm and character, then this classic Australian seaside cottage should be at the top of your list.

Located among the blissfully chilled-out vibes of the Tyrone Foreshore and just minutes to some amazing local enclaves, from this incredible position you are also walking distance to the calm waters of Port Phillip Bay, the crashing waves at Dimmicks Beach and the delicious eats and seriously good coffee at Blairgowrie Village.

The house itself is set on a fantastic level allotment of approximately 534*m2 and features large picture windows that capture the warm afternoon sun, plus a mood board of original features including hardwood flooring, timber panelling and mid century cabinetry.
