When it comes to real estate, there are certain properties that are a turnkey home. This is one of them. This newly restored property has been renovated from top to bottom, leaving you speechless upon arrival with its modern rendered style façade, along with premium features and fixtures throughout. Sitting on a generous allotment measuring 728 sqm (approx) situated in the established old part of Greenvale, being a rare find in this current market.

Upon entry, you are welcomed by beautiful soaring ceilings and direct stick floorboards leading you through the spacious first living room, containing an abundance of natural daylight all thanks to the gorgeous atrium area, which projects a great amount of feng Shui. The second living area provides the ultimate homey sensation with cathedral ceilings and a feature brick wall with inbuilt fireplace giving the home that extra sense of character. The
