This beautifully presented home will have your attention from the moment you see it. Impeccable attention to detail flows from the front façade all the way through the home and continues to impress in the backyard. Ideally located close by to local shopping complexes, convenience stores, schools of all levels, freeway access, public transport, recreational reserves and so much more this home will tick all of your families' boxes.

Decking, manicured lawns and gardens guide you towards the rendered front façade making for the perfect welcome into this outstanding home. Upon entry you are met with high ceilings, floorboards and attractive colour schemes that flow throughout. The large living space creates a comfortable and warm environment to enjoy with your family complete with an indoor Coonara for those winter nights.
