4 2 2

This recently renovated Hamptons-style home is in an ideal location. Walking distance to ocean and bay beaches and Blairgowrie village means you have access to the best of both worlds. The property sits on approximately 835sqm of land and boasts a number of impressive features.

The single-level home showcases luxury light-filled living with a soft coastal palette. The wood burning fireplace and stunning timber floors add warmth to an open-plan design. The heart of the home is the large undercover alfresco area that takes full advantage of indoor/outdoor living. A high raked ceiling space is equipped with strip heaters and fans, a built-in BBQ, and weather resistant electric outdoor blinds, which makes it an ideal space for year-round use.

The beautifully tiled pool is another standout feature of the property. It's heated, luxurious magnesium salt composition
