Newly Renovated 70s Coastal Dream

Designed by renowned award winning architects Pleysier Perkins, this four-bedroom, two bathroom family home is a design lover's dream, where old meets new in a thoughtfully and lovingly planned renovation.

The pale blue front door gives little away as you wander past the cactus and olive tree-filled garden at this newly renovated 70s' Tootgarook house, but as you enter the hall and turn the corner towards the brand new kitchen, meals and living, an oasis awaits.

Please get in touch if you are interested in this home and would like further information.
