

10 Broad Street Westmeadows VIC

2 1 1

If you're looking for a regular two bedroom home, there are plenty to choose from? this is not your regular two bedroom home, this is a piece of history!

This bluestone residence, built circa 1850's, is significant for its contribution and history to the Westmeadows Township and is believed to be one of the first dwellings ever constructed throughout this area. History tells us, and as the name suggests, the Old Coach House is believed to be the connection with the coaching activities of Cobb & Co. which ran a daily service from Melbourne with a plaque being laid to commemorate this significant part of history.

However, today the property has been fully transformed and fully re-furbished internally, enabling you to enjoy the modern comforts of today whilst capturing the feel of yesteryear. Offering beautiful timber flooring throughout
