A masterfully crafted Federation-style home that blends timeless elegance with modern comfort. Positioned on a prominent corner allotment with two street frontages, this residence is built to an exceptional standard using pressed red brick and finished with classic terracotta roof tiles and Stucco render.

Stepping inside, you are greeted by soaring 10-foot ceilings, detailed period cornicing, and ornate ceiling rosettes and lead lighting that set the tone for the home's authentic Federation character. Beautiful Sydney Blue Gum polished floors flow throughout the living spaces, adding warmth and a touch of luxury.

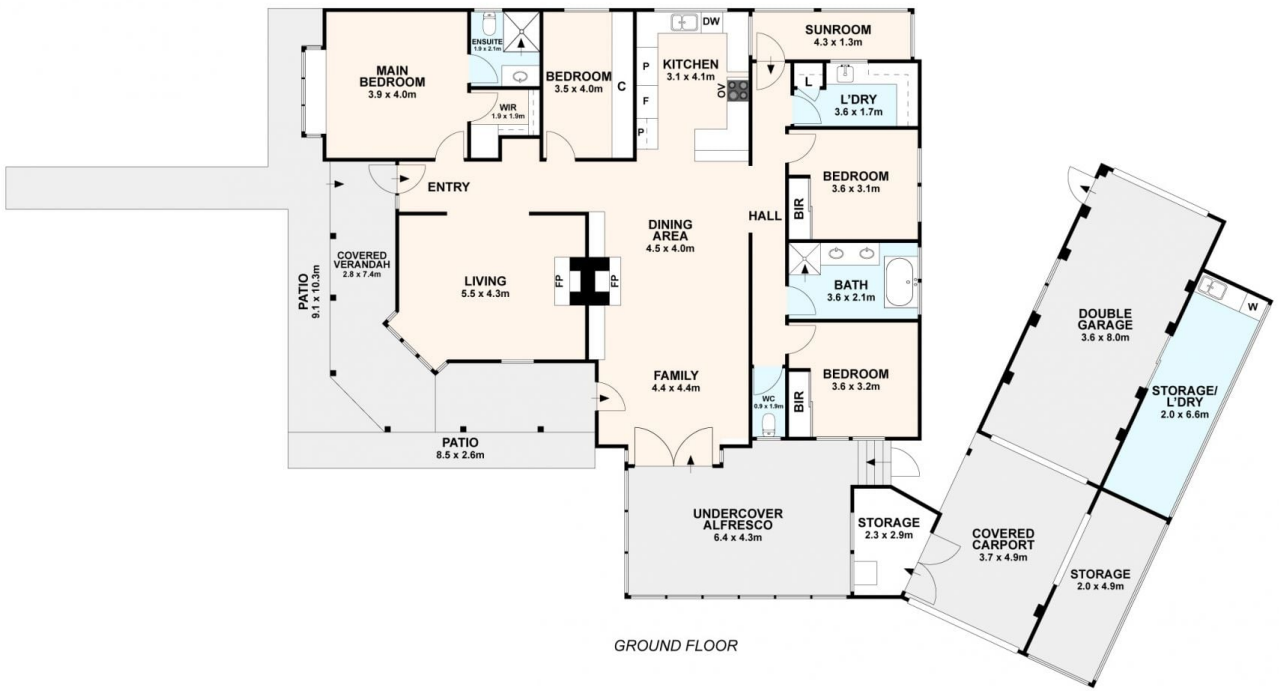

The home features four spacious bedrooms, two inviting living areas, and back-to-back open fireplaces that bring warmth, charm, and a homely atmosphere. The central
