3 2 2

Here in one of the quietest spots of Bacchus Marsh lays this picture-perfect retreat on an impressive allotment of 2045m2(approx.) The timber home features three good sized bedrooms all with BIR's, the master is upstairs and is the whole first level and big enough to have its own sitting area.

The central bathroom has been upgraded over the years to include a large shower and standalone bath with large single vanity, separate toilet, and laundry. The timber kitchen is in the heart of the home with 900mm oven with gas hot plates and WIP. Adjacent to this is the dining area, with a large wood Conara fire place and views out to the garden and beyond. There is also a large sun-drenched sitting area with cathedral ceilings and entry out to the deck. For added security there is a brand new security and monitoring system.
